6. I own no real property in the United States. I also have no bank accounts, and have no investments in the United States. I do not engage in transactions with businesses in the United States.

7. I am elderly and in poor health, which prevents me from engaging in lengthy travel.

8. I do not subscribe to or read either the International Herald Tribune or the Al Quds al Arabi. The latter publication, to my knowledge, is banned in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia.

9. I have never supported the loss of innocent life and believe that there is no justification for the tragic attacks of September 11, 2001. I have never supported any person or organization that I have known to participate in terrorist activities. As a well-known businessman, I have been frequently solicited for donations. I have made charitable donations to support the poor and those in need only.

10. I am informed by my attorney that my name was added to the list of defendants some time after the Third Amended Complaint was filed. However, no allegations were made about me.

11. I cannot read, write, or speak English. I understand that this declaration will be translated into English for purposes of this case.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the foregoing is true and correct.

Specializing in International Service of Process

About International Service of Process

There are two general methods of service abroad:

Formal Methods:

The "formal method" of service is the generally recommended method of service, particularly in countries that are signatories to an international treaty, such as the Hague Service Convention. This method is needed if it is anticipated that enforcement of judgment will be required.

The Hague Service Convention set forth the international rules related to service of process outside the originating country. Each nation that belongs to the Hague Service Convention agrees to abide by these international rules.

Letters Rogatory is the formal method to be used in countries that are not signers of the Hague Service Convention. In addition, the Inter-American Convention on Letters Rogatory controls the same issues between countries in North and South America. Letters Rogatory is also used when taking the deposition of a person in another jurisdiction.

The timeframe for service pursuant to formal methods can range from 1 to 5 months since proper procedures and/or diplomatic channels must be followed (typical turnaround time in most nations is 2-3 months). Costs are significantly lower than in informal service in most countries.

Generally, we recommend the formal method of service to insure a valid judgment.

No matter which method you choose, we handle the paperwork and logistics in completing the service in a timely and efficient manner. We do everything from preparing the letter of transmittal to the translation of your filed documents, as required.

Informal Methods:

Informal methods of service are available in most areas of the world where service by a non-attorney or private process server are . In general, if the country is not a signatory of an international treaty, service may be made by informal methods (similar to service in the United States). However, some countries such as Germany, Japan, Korea, China, Switzerland and Italy do not allow service by private process server and impose serious civil and criminal sanctions on those who violate their national sovereignty.

The advantage to utilizing informal service, in nations where it is available, is often the timeframe for completing service.

Saudi Arabia International Service Up-date

Saudi Arabia

Process Service Network is one of a few firms that specializes in international service of process and offers competitive rates on foreign services. Here is a summary of the methods available for service outside the United States and a specific proposal for the requested nation.

Our job is to cut through the bureaucracy and red tape to get the service completed with as little delay as possible. Since we have been in business for 26 years, we have developed close working relationships with key individuals in most countries throughout the world. The founder and President of Process Service Network was a Political Science major in college with a focus on international relations and is actively involved in a worldwide organization through which he has developed business and personal relationships in over 80 nations worldwide.

FORMAL SERVICE:

SAUDI ARABIA is not a signer of the Hague Service Convention. There is currently no formal method of service since Saudi Arabia does not honor Letters Rogatory.

INFORMAL SERVICE:

Private process servers may serve documents in most countries, whether a signer of The Hague Service Convention, or not. Service is normally handled in a manner similar to methods used in the United States, although completion of the service usually takes longer. Customs and traditions in other countries tend to lead to a slower pace and less rigid work habits, particularly in the Arab nations. Service sometimes may take several months but informal service is generally much faster than formal methods. Most process servers who we employ are off-duty police officers or other government officials who are able to, in certain cases, exercise their official capacity to complete the service. Since we pay the process server a bonus (at our own expense) for prompt service, the normal delays are usually reduced.

It must be advised, however, that corruption is sometimes evident in that country and that it is common for the process server to contrive an excuse for delays and/or additional costs. We will cover any additional costs but delays may be unavoidable.

Further, service in Saudi Arabia has been complicated in the recent period due to tensions in the Arab world. We do all that is possible to insure a timely completion of the service.

Advantage: Time and cost.

Disadvantage: Judgment may not be enforceable in the country where assets are located.

TRANSLATIONS:

Some countries require the documents to be translated into the official language of the nation where they are to be served. The U.S. State Department recommends translation, but it is not a requirement unless the formal method is used. It is possible, although rare, that a demurer could be filed based upon lack of understanding by the defendant as to the nature and meaning of untranslated documents. It is important that the Defendant understand the nature of the documents.

COSTS:

Service of process:

Informal = $1175.00 All fees are per defendant/address

Translation: $0.38 per word (proper nouns not translated)

DECLARATIONS:

We provide any necessary formal Declarations, under penalty of perjury, that the Court may require as to the progress and status of the service (at no additional cost).

WARNING: Beware of companies that quote suspiciously low rates. They often come back later with an excuse for an additional charge. Our rates are firm for one address quoted. Other companies are actually brokerage firms or website developers, not process service agencies, who farm out assignments to secondary companies that are not knowledgeable or qualified on international service of process.

DISCLAIMER:

The information contained herein is provided for general information only and may not be accurate at the time of service in a particular case or country. Questions involving specific services should be directed to our office. Care should be exercised in choosing the method of service (formal/informal) if eventual enforcement of a U.S. judgment is anticipated in the country where the documents are to be served. No legal advice is intended in the statements contained herein. Assignments for international service of process are accepted on the basis that the assigning law firm has researched all applicable laws. Process Service Network and its agents assume no liability for its actions in the course of any phase of the service of process assignment.
